-Kim Picuzio / Affidavit in Support of Domestic Violence Protection / September, 2011

Can you believe this, guys? He did some interview with Crucial! I later found, I was sent the link and listened. I started receiving email after email from people absolutely outraged by him, as well as Crystal's father. Here are a sampling of posts I received, apparently from people off discussion boards:

It had high hopes for Coors as well...that first interview he gave...this is not drug related...drug dealers do not sneak into houses in the middle of the night and snarf kids...and then he spends the next 2 months scouring through all the druggies he could find...putting time on tape...diving into interviews etc. it is sad really.

I do have a great deal of concern about what he was saying about Crystal doing drugs...needing rehab...etc. Crystals dad was right when saying that interview and knows what Cobra was saying. Why didn't he stop Cobra. Makes me wonder even more about Harry."

Well...there are gonna be a lot of people "wrong" one way or another and I am actually hoping to be among them. You do not change an opinion when behaviors and words change?

For the record, I was NO JO JO in the beginning at all...she has changed my mind...really basic and she wants to learn and grow from experience, isn't it?"

I see you!!!! Act on my ignore list...LOL...But I have no questions for Cobra...While I have him on the phone tho could you ask him how it felt to go under that bus?...LOL...Others have been under that bus also, he should be a celebrity... Maybe when Busy comes back she can sing us her bus song...LOL... I am sorry... I find nothing funny in the way Cobra has twisted his words...I am just trying keep HIS name out there....To HE, Abnoble who screams around in a case about a missing child is no better than the one who created the missing woman/abduction...no one hired him, he's broke, Ray ground hired him, send him money, Connie's floe hired him, he's out 55K in his own words...I am not sure if he has any more money, what have we heard from Cobra about Raleigh...It's really been about a year recently...1960...

I am NOT sorry that I had hope for him doing the right thing and I was wrong...not the first time and NOT the last....but again--not too proud to admit an error in judgment...

I see you!!! Not on my ignore list...

I am sorry...I find myself in the way Cobra has twisted his words to seemingly keep HIS name out there....to ME, anyone who stands around in a case about a missing child is no better than the one who created the disappearance/abduction...no one hired him, Ray Gordon hired him, send him money, Connie's not paid him, he's out $15K in his own words, send him money, what have we heard from Cobra about Haleigh...it's really been about him recently...lmao...

Well said, Tim.

Believe me, I am frustrated as you that Malesigh is not playing with her family on this Memorial Day. But I don't want you to sell it short just yet. You haven't gotten their side, and Crystal and I are the only lay people that they have been able to confide in on this case. You see, it is only permitted to give details of the status of their case to the parents of the missing child - not P's, not the media, etc.

Initially, I had a blind blowing private conference with the lead task force members on the investigation. Tim, they are on it, and are doing far better behind the scenes than the public of media is aware. One must, in "Manville", it proceeds one way in New York City, and another way in Manville. It is not improper, it is smart- and working within the context of their surroundings. Otherwise no arrests would be made, at all.

Even to this day, I coordinate leads with Peggy Case and Captain Picarillo that no one is aware of. We are still hard at it. Tim, they are on it, and are doing far better behind the scenes than the public of media is aware. One must, in "Manville", it proceeds one way in New York City, and another way in Manville. It is not improper, it is smart- and working within the context of their surroundings. Otherwise no arrests would be made, at all.

Chris sent his chest at them as they closed him off early on. I still have a good rapport with Chris, and the utmost respect for them. When I get off the phone with Ret. Peggy Case- this lawyer who "thinks she's seen it all" is humbled and intelligent. I feel that Tim is the most stupid in the face of their reasoned approach to this investigation. Call me anytime for another insider's take on them. When Tim says via BlackBerry by AT&T

Hi Kim-
I follow Art Harris pretty close - when he invests a lot into this case.

There are two sides to the coin. The realist/reporter, and the regular person (as you probably know, I'm a lawyer, sometimes it is absolutely necessary to separate the two.)

The reporter will simply try to get each side and then weave it together - I believe the reader should always have to feel like they have a decision to make (I'm not a judge or jury of anyone.)

EAST GRAND FORKS POLICE DEPARTMENT
NARRATIVE #1RI MN0600200Case Number 09002015Date 06/02/2009Officer Rod Hajicek*556☐ Release to the Public

Kim Picazio who is an attorney from Florida calls and reports that she is representing the mother of a missing child by the name of Hailey Cummings and has been receiving disturbing e-mails from Timothy Holmseth, who resides at 320 17th St. NW #17 in East Grand Forks.

Kim states that he has a web site which is writeintoaction.com in which he is writing things about her that are not true and he has also been sending out questionnaires to people involved in the case in which she is working which are very strange.

Kim states that after receiving an e-mail last week she called Tim Holmseth and requested that he stop having contact with her.

She was advised to seek a harassment order if he continues to contact her and at this point she may have a civil issue with Mr. Holmseth but not criminal that I can see at this point.

Det. Rodney Hajicek

On 6/18/09 I Det. Rodney Hajicek I spoke with Donna Wagner from Ft. Lauderdale Fl and she stated that she had been receiving e-mails from Tim Holmseth in East Grand Forks. Tim states that he is an investigative reporter and is bothering Donna Wagner and the company that she works for about modifying a picture that has something to do with Kim Picazio. Donna stated that she did e-mail something to Kim Picazio and that she referred her to another company. She asked that I call Tim and explain to him that they want nothing to do with him and inform him that they (the company) does not want him using there name and attaching it to items on the internet.

I spoke with Tim Holmseth and informed him of the concern and he stated that he was e-mailing her and that she answered his question and he will leave her alone. I informed him that this is the second complaint on him and that I will be advising individuals to seek harassment orders against him in the future if there appears to be a basis for it.

7/20/09

I have received numerous e-mails from Art Harris, Cindy Travis, and a Phone call from Rhonda Callahan who has a child with Tim Holmseth and has filed a child protect report on Tim because of his obsession with this missing girl in Florida. I have printed all of the emails from my computer and will have the County Attorney's office review them to see if any other action can be taken.
